

Do you earn under £22,000???

Are you on benefits?

Would you like to learn a new skill and increase your sales in your business or perhaps start you off in business?

Here's how!!!

With ILA Scotland, you can get up to £200 a year towards the costs of your learning and I'm delighted to say that you can now learn the complementary therapy courses that are available with Delicate Touch Therapy School using ILA funds !!!.

It's a Scottish Government scheme and because the money is not a loan, you don't have to pay any of it back!!!

To qualify: you need to live in Scotland, earn under £22,000 or be on benefits!

Why not use it to learn a new skill!

Delicate Touch Therapy is School is a registered provider and branded learning centre, its based in Glenrothes and has over 28 courses available, in groups or 1-1 classes, choose from Indian head massage to body massage to Sports Massage!
